

Eagles Fans Don't Let Fans Drive Drunk

"Good Sport" Encourages Designated Drivers

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

The game day experience is critically important to the Eagles and our fans. We want all of our fans to enjoy the game, and if they are drinking alcohol, to be responsible and make arrangements to get home safely. We strongly support the designated-driver program.

--- Rachel Vitagliano, Guest Services Manager Philadelphia Eagles

ANHEUSER-BUSCH

Tying Responsibility Has Its Rewards to our season-long Good Sport program makes for a winning combination. We're pleased to work with the Eagles, TEAM and the other program partners to recognize fans who look out for each other and make a designated-driver part of their game plan. When it comes to preventing drunk driving, we're all part of the team.

--- Kathy Casso, vice president of Corporate Social Responsibility for Anheuser-Busch

ARAMARK

As a founding member of TEAM Coalition, ARAMARK understands the importance of working closely with our clients and partners to ensure that fans have a great experience, an important part of which is the responsible consumption of alcoholic beverages. We remain fully committed to those we serve and the designated-driver program is an important component of the alcohol management program at Lincoln Financial Field.

--- Marc Bruno, president of ARAMARK Sports, Entertainment & Conventions

TEAM COALITION

The success of the Responsibility Has Its Rewards campaign and this new initiative to communicate the 'Fans Don't Let Fans Drive Drunk' message on all beer cups in NFL stadiums – including Lincoln Financial Field is a direct result of the commitment from the league, the teams and all the campaign partners. Teamwork is what this campaign is all about. We are demonstrating that when everyone--including the fans--takes responsibility, everyone wins.

--- Jill Pepper, executive director of TEAM Coalition

TEAM Coalition – an alliance of professional and collegiate sports, entertainment facilities, concessionaries, stadium service providers, the beer industry, broadcasters, traffic safety experts and others working together to promote responsible drinking and positive fan behavior at sports and entertainment facilities.
