

RAIDERS FANS DON'T LET FANS DRIVE DRUNK

"Good Sport" Encourages Designated Drivers

ARAMARK

As a founding member of TEAM Coalition, we understand the importance of working closely with our clients and partners to ensure that fans have a great experience, an important part of which is the responsible consumption of alcoholic beverages. We remain fully committed to those we serve and the designated-driver program is an important component of the alcohol management program at Oakland Alameda-County Coliseum.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH

Tying Responsibility Has Its Rewards to our season-long Good Sport program makes for a winning combination. We're pleased to work with the Raiders, TEAM and the other program partners to recognize fans who look out for each other and make a designated-driver part of their game plan. When it comes to preventing drunk driving, we're all part of the team.

TEAM COALITION

The success of the Responsibility Has Its Rewards campaign and this new initiative to communicate the 'Fans Don't Let Fans Drive Drunk' message on all beer cups in NFL stadiums, including Oakland Alameda-County Coliseum, is a direct result of the commitment from the league, the teams and all the campaign partners. Teamwork is what this campaign is all about. We are demonstrating that when everyone – including the fans – takes responsibility, everyone wins.

--- Jill Pepper, executive director of TEAM Coalition

TEAM Coalition – an alliance of professional and collegiate sports, entertainment facilities, concessionaries, stadium service providers, the beer industry, broadcasters, traffic safety experts and others working together to promote responsible drinking and positive fan behavior at sports and entertainment facilities.
